AN UNIQUE PEN OF LOCAL HISTORIC VALUE.

Mayor Chas. H. Bliss has an unique pen that is of more than ordinary local historic interest now on exhibition in the show window of Mr. Lindenstruth's store.

After the mayor signed the bond measure Wednesday night, some of the gentlemen present discovered that he had used a peculiar looking pen holder which "looked like a big dark quill, only different," and inquiry developed a pretty story of its origin, which, together with the fact that the mayor used it to sign the most important measure enacted in Pensacola's municipal history, makes it of special interest to the public and renders it a valuable legacy to the rising generation. This is its story:

As is well known, Mr. Bliss greatly enjoys and frequently indulges in outings accompanied by his family and several friends. On one of these excursions up the sound prior to his election as mayor of Pensacola, he returned to camp one day swinging a horse-shoe crab by the tail.

As one of the biggest and finest spreads of any number of similar extent, replied Mr. Bliss, "and when I'm impatient chorus of 'What on earth are you going to do with that fellow?' "Well, I'm only going to keep his tail, replied Mr. Bliss, "and when I'm elected mayor of the bond measure will be the most important step in the city's history, and I'm going to have a pen-holder made of this fellow's tail and with it sign the bond measure." And he did.

The result is a handsomely silver-mounted holder, holding a heavy gold point and bearing this inscription beautifully engraved thereon:

"Pensacola Improvement Bond.

July 19, 1905. Charles H. Bliss, Mayor. The pen is on exhibition in Jewelers' Lindenstruth's window for a few days and will well repay inspection. The holder is original, as the personality of the mayor, and there can be no doubt that in this instance at least, "the horse-shoe brings luck" to the city and, incidentally to its funds. May its measure increase as the days go by, for both.

A SWELL DINNER IN HONOR OF MR. COHEN.

Mrs. Adolph M. Cohen entertained at a very swell dinner Friday in honor of her husband's thirty-second birthday anniversary.

The dining room and reception hall were elaborately decorated in red and green beautifully carried out in the flaming flowers of the hibiscus, delicate clematis vines and maidenhair ferns.

The table was of course the objective point of the decorators skill. The polished board was covered with handsome combinations of Mexican drawn work and Montmelie and the whole draped with the clematis and ferns brightened by the hibiscus. The color scheme was carried throughout the menu, and was especially attractive in the food and cream. The cut glass and silver, including many of Mr. and Mrs. Cohen's handsome wedding presents of two years ago, were a decoration in themselves.

Covers were laid for ten, and the twelve courses were discussed from 2:30 to 5 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Cohen's guests included two lovely brides, Mr. and Mrs. Ed-

CAPT. AINSWORTH'S DANCE FOR HIS DAUGHTER.

Capt. George W. Ainsworth entertained a number of friends Thursday night with a dance in Catholic Knights' Hall in honor of his daughter Miss Anna Ainsworth and to celebrate her sixteenth anniversary.

Barrios excellent orchestra furnished the music and the delicious supper was served from a large table.

Capt. Ainsworth's and Miss Anna's guests were, Miss Verna McHugh, Miss Sadie McHugh, Miss Blanche McHugh, Miss Maggie McHugh, Miss Annie Walsh, Miss Louise Beibighauer, Miss Leola Fell, Miss Florida, Zeilins, Miss Regina Chaffin, Miss Constance Oldmixon, Miss Willa, Miss Eva Gonzalez, Mr. and Mrs. Moreno Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. John Amos, and Mr. Joe Santos, Mr. Gus Willa, Mr. George Nunez, Mr. John Fell, Mr. John Rauscher, Mr. Willie Bell, Mr. Alex Zellus, Mr. Willie King, Mr. Gasque Suarez, Mr. Conny Chaffin, Mr. Barre Fell, Mr. John Sealey, Mr. Joe McHugh, Mr. Marcum Broughton.

JOHNSON-RYDBERG WEDDING AND RECEPTION.

There was an interesting wedding Wednesday night in Muscogee Mission church when Mr. Robert Rydberg of New York and Miss Abigail C. E. Johnson were united in marriage, Rev. George W. Carpenter officiating at 8 o'clock.

The bride's party entered to the music of the wedding march played by Miss Edna Wilkinson.

The bride was extremely pretty in her bridal robe of white silk and was attended by a group of eight bridesmaids all wearing white.

The bridegroom had no men attendants, which is in keeping with the latest fad from New York, and entered with the minister.

The ceremony at the church was followed by a handsome reception at the residence of the bride's parents, 812 East Wright, where many handsome presents were displayed.

Mr. and Mrs. Rydberg are "at home" for the present with the bride's father, Mr. J. T. Johnson, the popular engineer on the L. & N. railway.

"LITTLE JOHNNIE'S CAMP."

Friday night a party of young pleasure seekers visited the Camp, which was so thoughtfully named after the well known young politician, Mr. Johnnie Brodnahan, and was met by the Campers with a fine fish chowder and fry which was prepared by Mr. Brodnahan, the Chef. Johnnie says he "Don't mind making the chowder, but gee whiz, them boys do eat."

The young folks claim to have had a pleasant time and enjoyed especially the music rendered by Messrs. Bud Swayne and Ed. Walsh on the violin and John Kelly on the mouth harp.

Also the beautiful singing of the golden voiced singer, Johnnie B. Also we enjoyed very much the cakes and other delicacies brought from the city by the girls, but as we had not seen cakes or anything in that line for a week, we were scared to touch them.

The party from the city consisted of Misses Ethel Scholls, Rosa Scholls, Sadie McHugh, Annie Ainsworth, R. Chaffin, Denie Swayne, Ellie Swayne, Maggie McHugh, Annie Walsh, Inez Harrison, and Verna McHugh, and Messrs. Louis Raedy, Jos. Tourant, Mitch Tourant, G. Gonzalez, Willie Merritt and Jos. McHugh.

FORT BARRANCAS NOTES.

Captain Lyon, in command of the post, and his adjutant Lieutenant Coward, and Captain Hase, made a canoe trip to Fort Morgan the first of the week. They took the inside course through the lagoons and found a most desirable route and only a few places where they were obliged to make a portage.

Lieutenant Watson is away on leave of absence visiting friends in Pittsburgh, Penn.

Lieutenant Hardin is away on leave of absence but does not intend to return as he is ordered to the Fort Monroe Artillery school for the winter.

Captain Hatch started to-day for Grand Rapids, Mich., for six weeks leave of absence, and Lieutenant Crawford is in command of the Fifteenth company and of Fort Pickens.

The Quartermaster's boat, The Poe, is soon to take the place of the Baker which has been on the run from the Posts to Pensacola for the past six months. The officers are much delighted that the Poe is coming back to Fort Barrancas.

MRS. MASSEY RECALLS HER INVITATIONS.

The invitations sent out by Mrs. John Massey of 702 West Garden street, for a linen shower for Miss Bertha Griffin are hereby recalled, owing to the illness of her fiancé, Mr. White.

THE UNCERTAINTY OF LIFE ILLUSTRATED.

An incident singularly eloquent of the uncertainty of life and death was brought out by the presence in this city of Mr. T. Giblin of Mobile, the venerable father of Mrs. John White, at the funeral of his son-in-law.

Mr. White was warmly attached to Mr. Giblin who returned his affection with interest. About three weeks ago Mrs. White and her sister Mrs. George Hoffman were called to Mobile, notified that their father was dangerously ill and would die. Mr. White accompanied them to Mobile saying "I want to go and see Father once more before he leaves us."

In less than a month later the venerable, white haired father was up and able to come from Mobile and attend the funeral of Mr. White who had been so suddenly called away, returning Friday evening.

MISS HALLMARK OF THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS.

Miss Harrydell Hallmark, one of the most prominent of successful Southern women journalists, of whom an interesting sketch was printed in the Friday morning Journal, is a niece of Judge George Hallmark one of Pensacola's most popular and prominent residents. And of course, a first cousin of Judge Hallmark's daughters, Miss Daisy Hallmark and her elder sisters Mrs. "Buddie" Oliver and Mrs. Frank Ratcliffe and brothers Messrs. Harry and Chaffee Hallmark of this city, where she has numerous other relatives.

Miss Harrydell Hallmark, when she lived in Pensacola gave no evidence of the brilliant talent which has since distinguished her, but was socially popular, and her many old friends and numerous family connections will unite in wishing her continued success in the newspaper field.

Mrs. H. G. Lomers of Mobile, a friend of the family who came to attend the funeral of Mr. John White, left Friday evening for home.

Mr. Vincent Giblin who came from Mobile to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law Mr. John White, left for home Friday evening.

Mrs. George Thomas of Nashville, and Mrs. N. D. Thomas, of this city, are in Marianna this week the guests of their relative, Mrs. J. T. Holden.

Mrs. Joseph B. Lasseter did not get away last week, as her brother Mr. J.

MOLINO

Special to The Journal.

Molino, July 22.—We are still having showery weather and the farmers throughout the country have been very busy planting sweet potato vines. Fodder pulling is next on the farmers' program.

Mrs. Snowden, one of our nearby neighbors, spent several days last week with her brother, Mr. Tom Barrineau.

Miss Tait spent Saturday and Sunday at Quintette visiting friends. Miss Beatrice Stevens, of Quintette, came to Molino Monday morning on train No. 6 and did some shopping. She accompanied Mrs. Barrineau back through the country. They had a pleasant drive on the hard road.

Mr. James Daffin was a visitor here Sunday from Quintette.

Mrs. C. A. Barrineau and children, of Quintette, spent Tuesday here the guests of Mrs. Grimmer.

Miss Mattie Crabtree and her little niece, Bernice, was in Molino Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Diamond, of Chumuckla, Fla., spent two days here the guests of Mrs. Diamond's brother, Mr. Mose Penton.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Proctor went to Roberts Saturday evening to visit Mrs. Proctor's father. Mrs. Proctor returned Monday accompanied by her sister, Miss Mabel.

Mr. Adam Jennings and daughters, Misses Minnie and Ada, of Jennings, came in early Tuesday morning to go to Bay Minette, Ala., to attend a picnic.

Mr. Willard Crabtree joined the party at this place. They returned Tuesday evening after spending the day pleasantly.

Mr. Tom Majors, the section foreman here, is very sick. His father came up this morning from Olive, Fla., to nurse him during his illness. We hope he will soon be well again.

There is no other sickness that we know of just now.

BRENT

Special to The Journal.

Brent, July 22.—Our weekly water does consisted of light showers on Sunday evening and Monday morning.

Many ponds are still dry, and the cattle are bawling for longer drinks.

Mrs. E. M. Stephens, with her daughter, Ruby, flew out to Cloptonia on a round-trip visit last Sabbath—tickets good until midnight—but no stopovers at Goulding allowed.

That lamentable tragedy on last Tuesday in Pensacola shocked the entire people far out into the piney-woods country.

Verily, our great protector, guide and savior seems to be completely outwitted by Satanic strategy. The closing of all business during the funeral of John White was a fitting tribute by his fellow merchants—to shed sorrowing tears of sympathetic brotherhood.

The protracted meeting at Brent, which closed Thursday night, proved to be a Methodist revival—three new members having joined the church. There is ample room for more, and grace enough for all.

It is rumored that Prof. Allen has been "running about" amongst the neighbors! Hope he may be able to reach Cloptonia once more before this "Sage Leaves" for "parts unknown."

The boycotting of the Chinese and the street car "walkers" of Pensacola remind me of the man who mutilated himself to spite his wife and fired his buildings to eradicate the rats!
